Inkosi has done it again. On the 30th August 2008 we launched the store of our most recent member to the Inkosi family, situated at 3 Andromeda Street, Shop 16 Starwood Mall, Phoenix. Fun, fun and sales was the order of the day. There were loads of promotions and prizes on offer and free stuff to giveaway. The highlight of the day being DJ Vaughan, who rocked the party into the sunset. All said and done, it was one smashing day. The Management and staff of Gaydon SA Motor Spares would like to take this opportunity of wishing them everything of the best and God speed.
